

Gallery of Hungarian Historical Paintings on May 10, 2014 at the HHF Festival
by Jozsef Hajnal Hungarian Artist

The Arrival of the Hungarians (Hungarian: A magyarok bejövetele; commonly known as Feszty-körkép) by Hungarian painter Árpád Feszty depicting the arrival of the Hungarians to the Carpathian Basin in 895.

Displayed in the Ópusztaszer National Park, Hungary

Baptism of Vajk by Gyula Benczur

Dugovics Titus's Sacrifice by Alexander Wagner

Women of Eger by Szekely Bertalan

and many more paintings from Gyula Benczur, Jozsef Borsos, Pal Szinyei Merse, Mihaly Munkacsy

All of the oil paintings were replicated by Jozsef Hajnal Hungarian Artist, here in the Bay Area, in Redwood City, CA.

Please come and see the History of Hungary through Hungarian historical oil paintings.

The Gallery will be located on the first floor of the Mansion, near the Exhibition and the HHF Information Center.

You can visit this special Gallery only for one day on May 10, 2014 between 12 Noon – 8 pm.